Impeccably elegant and beautifully effortless, Sperry Tents, already an American icon of glamorous parties in the Hamptons, can transform your event into the celebration of a lifetime.

Nothing can compare to these original handcrafted tents. Here we tell you a little more about their heritage and their inimitable memory-making qualities so that you too can fall in love with the beauty and story behind the perfect party space.

Welcome to the world of Sperry, a luxury brand built on heritage and authenticity. Delivering quality and elegance with every tent.

Created by the combined passion and talents of the Sperry family - renowned sailmakers from Massachusetts, the Sperry name is respected amongst the sailing community.

The Sperry brand has evolved to include the stunning Sperry Tent and has become synonymous with exquisite design and detail, thereby starting a revolution in the world of luxury tents.

Sperry's nautical heritage is still evident in the tent's materials and design. Featuring hand-sewn panels of authentic oyster-coloured sailcloth, setting them apart from more conventional canvas and white vinyl tents.

Authentic craftsmanship, refined quality and use of the very finest natural materials can be seen and felt in every detail of a Sperry Tent.

The geometric design elements enhance the simplicity of the Sperry's clean crisp lines. Hand-milled poles give a subtle nod to their nautical heritage, rising to dramatic peaks and topped with whimsical flags to create a timeless silhouette. Open or clear sidewalls allow the interior to be flooded by natural light.

As the sun goes down, the height and space create a dramatic communal dining area, and as our canopies are handcrafted out of genuine sailcloth, they breathe during the day and the warm oyster-coloured canvas glows at night.

The Dreamiest Occasions

Whether for an intimate gathering or the celebration of a lifetime, the Sperry Tent is the ultimate outdoor venue, making every occasion a truly memorable one

The iconic Sperry silhouette and oyster-coloured canvas has become synonymous with New England elegance.

Understated luxury, elevating your event and allowing for a truly customised occasion that effortlessly reflects your personality or brand.
